

- A. (5:1-4) Peter's appeal to elders focuses on the willingness to serve, abstaining from greed for money and not controlling but being servants and examples, when Christ comes they will receive glory.
- B. (5:5-11) Peter's appeal to young men focuses on their humble submission to the elders, self-control, resistance of demonic temptation and anxiety free reliance on God so that he can strengthen them even through trials.
- V. (5:12-14) Peter's closing remarks focus on the fact that it is his intention to encourage his readers and testify of God's grace as well as send the greeting and well-wishes of other believers to them.