

Teri Hopper

teri.hopper@gmail.com

(562) 777-4072

Education

Master of Science, Speech Language Pathology
University of Redlands, Redlands CA May 2005

GPA: 3.64

Bachelor of Arts, Communication Disorders
Biola University, La Mirada CA May 2003

Honors

CSHA Board Student Representative 2004-2006

CSHA District 10 Outstanding Student Award 2005

William H. Parker Scholarship 2003-2005

Biola University NSSHLA President 2002-2003

Affiliations

American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA)

California Speech and Hearing Association (CSHA)

Medical Speech Pathology Council of California (MSCC)

Professional Experience

Healthsouth Tustin Rehabilitation Hospital November 2006-present

Speech Language Pathologist

Acute rehab and outpatient therapy for adults with various neurological diagnosis for the treatment of dysphagia, speech, language and cognitive disorders. Participating in supervision of clinical fellow and education of speech pathology students.

Long Beach Memorial Hospital June 2005-October 2006

Speech Language Pathologist

Dynamic therapeutic environment servicing inpatient acute, acute rehab, skilled nursing and outpatient areas. Skilled in assessment and treatment of neurologically impaired patients. Proficient with both traditional and modified barium swallow dysphagia assessment within a widely varied patient population.

San Bernardino City School District 2004-2005

Clinical Therapist

Creatively implemented therapy objectives for elementary school students under the supervision of a licensed Speech Language Pathologist.